Public Comment

The Hate Crimes and Bias Incidents Hotline Advisory Committee welcomes both written and verbal public comments on items that appear on the agenda. Registration for public comment opens after the meeting agenda has been posted online to the AGO Task Force website. Registration for members of the public will close 5pm the evening before the meeting is scheduled to begin. Instructions and registration information can be found on the Advisory Committee website.

Those who register for verbal testimony will be provided up to two minutes to give public comment. Depending on the number of people registered, verbal testimony may be shortened to accommodate all who registered. Written comments received by 5pm the evening before the meeting will be distributed to Advisory Committee members.

The Attorney General's Office is committed to ensuring that all of the information, services and technology we provide are accessible to everyone. Materials in alternative formats, ASL interpreters, real-time captioning and other accommodations will be made available upon request. Please make your request to the Hate Crimes & Bias Incidents Hotline Team hatebiashotline-noreply@atg.wa.gov as soon as possible.
